

FIFCO™

Membership

2022

fifco.org

After our 2021 Annual General Meeting in Dubai, the membership decided to extend the reduced pricing for membership in 2022 and right into 2023. Our approach is inclusivity. The way we keep growing is to include as many countries as possible. Our two membership categories will remain and open to all to apply and renew. We are looking at adding more tournaments to our calendar and 2022 might just be the right time to do it. The International Federation of Corporate Football (FIFCO) was founded in 2009 on our four core values. If we are here today, it is because of members like you who continue to give us strength to move forward and to keep growing. We encourage you to go through this package and to see how you can benefit from joining and growing with us. I look forward to seeing you at one of our tournaments very soon.

The global pandemic is still amongst us, and many of us are still struggling to ensure the viability of corporate football with our respective local clients. FIFCO is conscious of your needs and as such, we will continue with this goodwill gesture of reducing our membership fees to a small symbolic amount to ensure continuity and support to all our members. Our reduced amounts will remain right into 2023. Together, we will grow stronger. AZ

INTRODUCTION

Competition also is part of our regular routines. Whether at work or at home, we always find ourselves running from one place to the other. FIFCO brings to the table an organised structure of regular football leagues, world class championships, tournaments and above all the opportunity to travel and meet other like-minded players around the world. Through our affiliate continental organisations, we are building tournaments in various cities, countries, continents with the ultimate result of reaching the World Corporate Champions Cup™ having employees of all denominations and skill levels participate in this beautiful game. Membership has its advantages, while our tournaments are open to non-members, the benefits outweigh the costs. Through a united family of organisations, we can build a better tomorrow for all of us.
